Here is my writing/speaking from the questions above.

I am going to talk about the city I live in and tell you why I like it here. I live in Windsor, Ontario. It's in Canada on the border with the USA, specifically Detroit. I was born here and my parents decided on Windsor when they immigrated here many years ago. Windsor is small, but it has many places where I can walk my dog. I love the trails because they are clean and the scenery is beautiful. Devonshire Conservation is just amazing and it is also dog-friendly. I usually bring my dog and he enjoys some exercise and he gets to see interesting people and other dogs too. Finally, I love living in Windsor because it is a small and quaint city to live in.
