

Number the sentences in the correct order. The first one has been done for you.

(a)	Akbar is happy that his dream is now realised.
(b)	Once at the Taj Mahal, Akbar starts to sketch the patterns. His mind is swirling with colours and patterns.
(c)	One day, Grandfather takes Akbar to visit the Taj Mahal.
(d)	Finally, they arrive in Agra. Seeing the Taj Mahal is the best moment of Akbar's life.
(e)	Akbar is a 8-year-old boy whose dream is to make the most beautiful silk cloth in the whole of India.
(f)	To pass time on the train, Grandfather narrates the fascinating story of the Taj Mahal to Akbar.
(g)	Akbar tells his Grandfather that he wants to make patterns that no one has ever seen on silk before!
(h)	Before his trip to Agra, Akbar gets ready some paper and pencils to mark the colours and ideas.
(i)	Akbar is amazed that the Taj Mahal took twenty years to be built. He is determined not to wait that long to make his dream come true.
(j)	As soon as they got home, Akbar starts working on his designs.
(k)	The visit is to help Akbar get ideas to create his own silk cloth.
(l)	When Akbar is done, Uncle Omar said, "This is truly the most beautiful silk cloth in India."	