

Skill Development

Before you read...

1. Guess the words by their definition and use them to discover another word.

1. Circle metals forming a line used to secure objects.
2. Place where we buy different things.
3. Vehicle with two wheels.
4. "It is too high for me, I need to _____".
5. Take someone's property without permission and never return it.

2. Vocabulary: Match the words in the box with the pictures.

lenient

budget

court

incarceration crowd

gang

--	--	--

--	--	--

Skill Development

While you read...

1. Go to your Student Book. Open it on page 124. Read the article and answer the question.

What is the main idea of the text?

- a. Explain how teenagers go through the MST process and end up helping the community.
- b. Explain what the MST is, how it works and give examples of its function.
- c. Compare different programs that help young criminals changing their lives.

2. Read the article again. Read the following statements and answer, which ones are true?

- a. The U.S. has one of the world's highest rates of people incarceration.
- b. The MST helps troubled kids get back in track without leaving their homes.
- c. The MST program helps not only the trouble kids but also their whole families.
- d. This new approach for young criminals is totally free for everyone.
- e. The change in Katie's life was reflected right after she finished the program.

3. Read the article one more time. Choose the correct answers.

a. In the US, ...

- incarcerating young people always prevents them from reoffending.
- 65,000 young people are incarcerated each year.
- it isn't surprising that young people break the law.
- there are more young people in prison than in most other countries.
- $65,000 is spent a year on juvenile prisons.

b. Multisystemic Therapy...

- treats youth offenders in prison.
- doesn't take youth offenders from their homes.
- helps children whose parents are criminals.
- can't help youth offenders who have committed serious crimes.
- helps kids who are scared of being in crowds.

c. MST therapists...

- find it difficult to avoid arguments with participants.
- don't visit participants very often.
- visit participants in different places.
- earn $4,700 per participant.

Skill Development

- Are paid $132,000 by society as a whole.

d. Katie Smith...

- feels she has benefited.
- was assaulted last year.
- should have spent longer in prison.
- assaulted another teenager in prison.
- was lucky not to go to prison.

e. Katie...

- and her mother still argue constantly.
- has decided to leave school.
- thinks her mother shouldn't cause problems.
- plays sports with other members of her gang.
- doesn't want to be in a gang anymore.