

Week 13 Lesson 1: Animal Adaptations in the Rainforest

Drag and drop the animal adaptation in the correct box.

| Animal           | Adaptation  |  |
|------------------|---|--|
| Poison dart frog |    |  |
| Piranha          |    |  |
| Jaguar           |    |  |
| Three-toed sloth |   |  |
| Tiger            |  |  |
| Toucan           |  |  |
| Spider monkey    |  |  |
| Army ants        |  |  |

Uses their tail as a 5th limb to help them climb trees.

Uses their beak to break open fruit.

Sleeps for up to 20 hours per day.

Lives in a colony of up to 2 million.

Has triangular teeth to help them clamp on to and grip their food.

Has sticky feet to help them climb trees.

Swims to help them cool down.

Has dark, stripy fur for camouflage.