

Watch the following video and answer the questions to it.

1. What can't you do with a hundred bill?
2. What makes a hundred dollar bill valuable?
3. What defines the amount of circulation of money in some particular country?
4. What does the term fiat money mean?
5. Who decides how much money to print?
6. What is the purpose of currency?
7. What is the difference between inflation and deflation?
8. What factors should be taken into account to define the amount of money that should be in circulation?

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES:

- A. A hundred dollar note is an official.....
- B. Most currencies during history were linked tocommodities.
- C. The consumer shortage can be a result of.....
- D. Unemployment can be caused by.....