

PAST PERFECT

NAME: _____

Choose the correct form of the verbs.

- 1 When John arrived late for his exam he was / had been upset because nobody told / had told him the time changed / had changed.
- 2 The school team never played / had never played in a real stadium before, and they were / had been very excited to see so many spectators when they ran out onto the pitch.
- 3 I was at a boarding school before I went / had been to university, so I knew how to look after myself, but some of my classmates were never / had never been away from home and found / had found it hard to manage without their parents at first.
- 4 Last Friday our teacher gave / had given us a test in biology. I was / had been able to answer the questions because I saw / 'd seen a documentary on the subject just a week before, not because I revised / 'd revised. In fact I forgot / 'd forgotten that we had / had had a test that day!
- 5 It was / had been my birthday yesterday. I was sad, because no one wished me a happy birthday. It seemed that everyone forgot / had forgotten. But, when I got / had got home, all my friends were there! I was very surprised. No one told / had told me anything about it, but my friends all planned / had all planned a surprise party. They bought / had bought a cake and presents, and it was really amazing. I felt / had felt so happy.