

ROBISON CRUSOE

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Oe1f0SdMqmM>

LISTEN AND COMPLETE THE STORY

Before I [redacted] my story, I [redacted] to tell you a little about myself.

I wa [redacted] in the year 1632, in the city of York in the north of England.

My [redacted] was German, but he [redacted] to live and work in England. Soon after that, he [redacted] my mother, who was [redacted]. Her family name was Robinson, so, when I was born, they called me Robinson, after her.

My father did well in his [redacted] and I [redacted] to a good school. He [redacted] me to get a good job and live a quiet, comfortable life. But I [redacted] want that. I wanted adventure and an [redacted] life.

'I want to be a [redacted] and go to sea,' I told my mother and father. They [redacted] very [redacted] about this.

'Please don't go,' my father said. 'You won't be happy, you [redacted] Sailors have a difficult and [redacted] life.' And because I [redacted] him, and he was unhappy, I tried to [redacted] about the sea.

But I [redacted] forget, and about a year later, I [redacted] a friend in town. His father had a [redacted] and my friend said to me, 'We're [redacted] to London tomorrow. Why don't you come with us?'