

PASSAGE 10

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

The university campus is like one big village where thousands of students live, work and relax surrounded by rolling green fields. It is the centre of the student (1) _____ in all its variety. While it is basically a place for young people, there are a (2) _____ of family flats and children are never far away. People come to live here from all over the world, so members of different cultures and speakers of different languages live next door to each other. One house has had special structural alterations to (3) _____ it suitable for students with disabilities. Most first year students live on campus. It's the easiest way to meet people when you first arrive and there's always somebody to (4) _____. It is a busy, lively place, but because the campus is in the middle of parkland, you can wander off and be alone if you want to.

When you arrive here, you will be introduced to your personal tutor. She or he (5) _____ a special interest in your progress in your course and can also advise you on any personal problems. Your personal tutor is somebody you can always rely on for help and support.

- | | | | |
|------------------|--------------|---------------|-----------------|
| 1. A. company | B. community | C. connection | D. league |
| 2. A. block | B. number | C. pile | D. quantity |
| 3. A. make | B. have | C. build | D. get |
| 4. A. face up to | B. go in for | C. drop in on | D. get round to |
| 5. A. gives | B. holds | C. takes | D. makes |

PASSAGE 11

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

Today, almost 90 percent of American students attend (1) _____ elementary and secondary schools, which do not charge tuition but rely on local and state taxes for funding. The (2) _____ ten percent attend private schools, for which their families pay tuition. Four out of five private schools are run by religious groups, where religious instruction is part of the curriculum. There is also a small but growing number of parents who educate their children themselves, a practice known as (3) _____.

Traditionally, elementary school (4) _____ kindergarten through the eighth grade. In some places, however, elementary school ends after the sixth grade, and students attend middle school, or junior high school, from grades seven through nine. Similarly, secondary school, or high school, traditionally comprises grades nine through twelve, but in some places begins (5) _____ the tenth grade.

- | | | | |
|--------------------|----------------|--------------------|-------------------|
| 1. A. civic | B. communal | C. public | D. local |
| 2. A. extra | B. additional | C. other | D. further |
| 3. A. house school | B. home school | C. house schooling | D. home schooling |
| 4. A. includes | B. contains | C. consists | D. accounts |
| 5. A. in | B. from | C. on | D. at |

PASSAGE 12

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

When you've finished the compulsory part of your (1) _____, you then have to decide what to do next. You could leave school to find a job straightaway, you could undergo training for a specific (2) _____, or you may decide to continue your studies in order to (3) _____ university. If you go to university, you will have to work hard at your chosen subject, in order to qualify for your (4) _____. If you are lucky, you will receive financial aid to help you pay your living expenses. Even when you have completed your studies, and are a university (5) _____, you may have difficulty in finding the right job.

- | | | | |
|----------------|----------------|--------------|------------|
| 1. A. learning | B. upbringing | C. education | D. school |
| 2. A. career | B. work | C. task | D. duty |
| 3. A. go | B. enter | C. follow | D. pursue |
| 4. A. degree | B. certificate | C. document | D. record |
| 5. A. leaver | B. student | C. graduate | D. learner |