

In my opinion, Cameron is a gooder (good) director in Hollywood.

Gooder (good) than George Lucas? The director of Star Wars.

I think Cameron's films are more entertaining (entertaining) than Lucas's. But maybe Lucas is most successful (successful) at the cinema.

Avatar was disappointing. It's definitely Cameron's more predictable (predictable) and duller (dull) film. Cameron is overrated.

Are we talking about the same film? Avatar is his most gripping (gripping) film yet.
