

What's the matter?

1. What's wrong with these people? Match the pictures with the health issues.

Stomachache

Earache

Backache

Headache

Sore
thorath

Toothache

2. Complete the conversations. Use the questions and sentences in the box.

| | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| A. Fantastic. See you later. | B. OK. Get some rest. |
| C. How do you feel today? | D. So? Are you going to the party? |
| E. I'm fine, thanks. How about you? | F. That's too bad. Are you going to see a doctor? |
| G. I'm happy to hear that. | H. What's the matter? |

Monday morning.

Jenny: Hi, Liz. How are you?
Liz: ____
Jenny: Not so good. Actually, I feel really bad.
Liz: ____
Jenny: I think I have the flu.
Liz: ____
Jenny: I'm going to go home now.
Liz: ____
Jenny: Ok, thanks.

Friday morning

Liz: ____
Jenny: I feel much better.
Liz: ____
Jenny: Thanks.
Liz: ____
Jenny: Yes, I am.
Liz: ____

3. What is the name of the next medications?

1. His nose is very congested. He needs some _____.
2. I have a horrible cold, so I'm going to buy some _____.
3. your eyes look red and tired. Get some _____.
4. Charlie has a stomachache, so he's going to get some _____.
5. I have a terrible headache. I need some _____.
6. Janine's cough sounds horrible. The doctor gave her some _____.