Name: _____ No. _____ Matthayom 6

UNIT 7: In Style Worksheet
Present Perfect Simple vs. Present Perfect Progressive

A. Read the sentences. Underline the verbs in the Present Perfect Simple and Present Perfect Progressive. Then, for each, write PPS for the Present Perfect Simple or PPP for Present Perfect Progressive.

1. I've just eaten lunch. Let's just go for some coffee now. ___PPS___
2. Margaret has been very busy. She hasn't sent the emails yet. _____
3. John has been studying all day. _____
4. What have you been doing? _____
5. You'll be tired tomorrow. You've been dancing for hours. _____
6. Did you turn your cellphone off? I've been calling you all day. _____
7. How much of the job have the workers completed? _____
8. Sandra has read six chapters of the book already. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Complete the sentences using the Present Perfect Progressive or Present Perfect Simple.

1. My hands are full of grease because I have been fixing (fix) my car for hours.
2. I _____ (write) all my Christmas cards, but I haven't bought presents yet.
3. Ramon _____ (play) tennis since lunch.

   He _____ (win) ten games.
4. My brother is a professional model. He _____ (appear) in several fashion magazines last year.
5. We _____ (travel) around Europe for two months, and we _____ (visit) thirteen countries so far.
6. I can't concentrate. I _____ (read) a book for two hours, and I _____ (read) only ten pages.
7. Whew! I'm tired. I _____ (work) all day. I _____ (clean) the floors, and all the windows in the house.
8. I _____ (work) on this jigsaw puzzle since this morning.

   I _____ (put) together all but a few pieces.

LIVEWORKSHEETS