Making Predictions

Read the passage. Predict what will happen next.

Alex went to his friend's birthday party and ate a big dish of cake and ice cream. He drank two glasses of juice. After he got home he ate a lot candy from the birthday piñata.

What happens next?

Alex played with his dad's pocket watch	Alex felt sick.	Alex felt dizzy.

Donaisha is cleaning her room. She finds an old toy under her bed. She stops cleaning her room so she can play with it. When she finishes, she looks at the clock. Mom will check on her in ten minutes, and she will expect Donaisha's room to be clean.

What happens next?

a. Donaisha gets into trouble.

b) Donaisha takes a nap.

c) Donaisha quickly finishes cleaning.

d) Donaisha hides.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

"Jackrabbit and Roadrunner"

Answer the questions about the story.

1. Why did the other animals want Jackrabbit and Roadrunner to race?
   a. The animals were tired of hearing their silly talk.
   b. The animals liked watching them race around the desert.
   c. The animals knew that Jackrabbit was the fastest.

2. Who planned the path for Jackrabbit and Roadrunner to race?
   a. Owl b. Vulture c. Rattlesnake

3. What helped Jackrabbit when he begin to feel tired?
   a. He ran around the mountain fast.
   b. He knew he was the fastest runner.
   c. He thought about his favorite story.

4. Which sentence from the passage help you predict how the race finishes?
   a. Roadrunner and Jackrabbit ran around the mountain and bend.
   b. They were neck to neck when they came around the mountain.
   c. Jackrabbit was feeling tired but he did not stop.

5. Which sentence best tells what a prediction is?
   a. A prediction is never the right answer.
   b. A prediction is always the right answer.
   c. A prediction is a guess about what might happen next.

LIVEWORKSHEETS