Grammar

A. Choose a, b, c or d.

1. Janet _____ bring the cat inside. Pets are not allowed.
   a. doesn't have to c. needn't
   b. can't d. doesn't need to
2. Katie _____ bring anything. I have planned everything.
   a. didn't need to c. might not
   b. needn't have d. doesn't have to
3. You _____ to wear something formal to the interview.
   a. should c. had better
   b. ought d. should have
4. Mary _____ studied harder for the exam. She's going to fail.
   a. ought to c. should have
   b. needed to d. must have
5. Fred was very lucky. He _____ have been seriously injured in the car accident.
   a. could c. must
   b. should d. may
6. Betty's cough got worse, so she _____ go see a doctor yesterday.
   a. had better c. should
   b. must d. had to
7. We _____ go on a trip next week, but nothing is certain yet.
   a. must c. should
   b. have to d. may
8. Tina _____ be sick. I just saw her at the supermarket.
   a. can't c. needn't
   b. mustn't d. shouldn't

B. Rewrite the sentences using the words given.

1. I'm certain that Samantha is at the library. must

   _____

2. The most logical explanation is that someone left the office window open. have

   _____

3. It is not a good idea to be late for your appointment. better

   _____

4. I'm sure that you didn't see my sister at the post office, because she was at school this morning. seen

   _____

5. There's a possibility we won't go to the beach if it rains. might

   _____

6. I regret shouting at the waiter about my order. should

   _____

7. It isn't necessary for us to work overtime today. have

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Extra Material

Module 4

Vocabulary & Communication

A. Choose a, b, c or d.

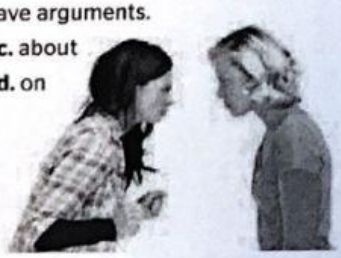

1. Henry has always been very _____, which is why he doesn't like planning in advance.
   a. imaginative c. reliable
   b. spontaneous d. ambitious

2. I didn't understand the ending. It didn't make _____.
   a. a guess c. sense
   b. an impression d. a difference

3. Let's discuss the issue and come _____ with a solution.
   a. up c. across
   b. at d. in

4. Frank is so good at his job that his boss is giving him a(n) _____.
   a. pay rise c. income
   b. salary d. living

5. Kelly and Melissa don't get along _____ each other. They always have arguments.
   a. with c. about
   b. by d. on

B. Circle the correct word.

1. I've made / done some research to find the best places where we could stay.
2. We fired / hired a new secretary at our office today. She seems eager to learn new things.
3. What kind of suggestions / qualifications are required for this specific job position?
4. I'm not in a hurry. Take / Make your time.
5. With a(n) imagination / knowledge like that, you should become a writer!
6. I used to have very tight deadlines in my exchange / previous job. That's why I quit.
7. You seem to be good with animals so you should consider becoming a vet / lawyer.
8. To become a teacher, you need to be patient / rational with young children.

C. Complete the sentences with the words in the box. There are two extra words that you do not need to use.

affected	notice board	applicants	promotion
registration	politician	role models	express	deleted

1. Oh no! I _____ an important document by mistake.
2. Betsy has been working very hard and hopes to get a _____ by the end of the year.
3. All the job _____ arrived on time for their interview.
4. Linda is quite shy and it isn't easy for her to _____ her emotions.
5. I left a note with Jack's phone number on the _____ .
6. Teachers should try to be good _____ for their students.
7. My brother wants to be a(n) _____ when he grows up.

LIVEWORKSHEETS