The population of C	man has increased	I significantly in recent years. It has grown from	1 million in 1980 to about 4.7	million today. Th	is huge increase poses many challenges to the society and the government	. The number of pe	eople who look for jobs is very high. Today there	is intense 1.	to get govern	nment jobs because there are only a few jobs technical colleges and universities to teach young people the 2.	needed to	work in factories and businesses. It also tries to people by reserving some professions like banking	g, marketing and driving for C	Omanis only. The g	government has implemented a program called SANAD to help young Om	ani 4	start their own businesses. It provides financial assistance to youn	g people to start pr	rojects that they like. However, many young peop	le don't like to take 5.	by starting	ng businesses and they wait to get government job	S which they think are safe at
