

Homework check-up

Make or do? Remember to use the correct form of the verb.

1. You must your duty.
2. I've my decision.
3. We will try to the most of our stay in France.
4. Will you please me favour and pick me up after school.
5. I really tried to an effort, but it was still too difficult.
6. I have a terrible mistake. Tell me how I can amends.
7. Well, that two of us.
8. He the laundry, cleaned the house, and dinner.
9. The picture doesn't the place justice. It is so beautiful there!
10. Have I myself clear?
11. There is no milk left so we will have to without it.
12. Can I speak to the manager please? I'd like to a complaint.
13. All these rumours have a lot of damage to his reputation.
14. I do not mind the dishes.
15. It no difference what you say. I have already my mind up.