Rewrite the pairs of sentences using non-defining relative clauses.

1 I got my new bike last week. It cost £250.

2 I bought the bike with my own money. I earned it from my Saturday job.

3 I did the job for two years. The job was in a shop.

4 I didn't enjoy the work. The work was quite boring.

5 But most of the staff were very friendly. They weren't much older than me.

6 I've still got a bit of money. I'm going to spend it on a new video game.
