Main Idea and Details

What is a main idea?

A main idea is what the text is mostly about.

What are details?
Details are sentences
that tell more about,
describe or explain
the main idea.

How can I find the main idea?

- I. Ask yourself, "What is this mostly about?"
- Look at the title of the text.
- Look at the pictures.
- 4. Look for words repeated over and over.
- Sometimes the main idea is either the first or last sentence in the text.
- Don't get distracted by interesting information that doesn't support the main idea.

Main Idea

Bats are unusual animals. Detail I Bats are flying mammals.

Detail 2

Bats use echo location to find food.

Detail 3

Bats hang upside down when they sleep.

