PRACTICE

Exercise 1:

Giving advice on work, health and relationships

Mike is writing a letter to Rashid, the son of an Indian friend. Rashid is starting a course at a British university. Start the phrase in brackets with You should or You shouldn't, and then add it to the letter.

Dear Rashid,

I hope you had a good journey. Your father asked me to give you some advice about life at university. Well, first of all, in my opinion, you should do a budget⁰ (do a budget), because life can become difficult if you don't have any money! Next,

(think about food). You can't study if you don't eat well. For example,

.....² (eat take-aways) every evening! They're expensive, and they're not very good for you.³ (go to your local shops) or the supermarket and buy simple, fresh food. Vegetables and some types of fish are very cheap.

Soon you'll start your course. Your university work is important, but⁴ (study) all night! You'll be tired in the morning. Instead,⁵ (make a timetable) for yourself, and work regularly. After you've worked for three hours or so,⁶ (go for walk) or a swim. It's important to get some fresh air!

It's also important to meet people.⁷ (go out every night), because it's expensive, but it's a good idea to make new friends in the first month or two. Friends can help you when life is hard! Finally, if you need any more help or advice,⁸ (call me).

Yours truly,
Mike

Exercise 2:

Asking for opinions or advice

Lauren and Robert are in a furniture shop, looking for things for their new house. Put the words in brackets in the right order, and add them to the conversation. Use capital letters and question marks where necessary. Get sometimes means buy.

- LAUREN Should we buy a sofa⁰ (a sofa/we/buy/should) today, or¹ (buy/should/an armchair/we), Robert?
- ROBERT Well, this brown sofa looks nice.² (try/we/it/should) (They sit on the sofa.)
- LAUREN It's very comfortable, isn't it?³ (get/should/it/we) How much is it?
- ROBERT I don't know.⁴ (ask/I/that assistant/should)
- LAUREN I think he's busy at the moment with that couple, but there's some information on the table.
- ROBERT I'll have a look. Oh! It's two thousand pounds!⁵ (go/to another shop/should/we)
- LAUREN I think the prices will be the same.
- ROBERT Really?⁶ (look/I/ on the internet instead/should) It might be cheaper.

Exercise 3:

Things we decide are necessary, work and appointments.

In the phone conversation below, use must with the words in brackets in all Dave's lines, and have to in all Shannon's lines.

- DAVE Hi Shannon, how are you? We must meet⁰ (we/meet) soon. I haven't seen you for a month at least.
- SHANNON I'm fine, Dave, but I can't see you on Saturday. I have to do⁰ (I/do) some work for my new boss. What about Sunday lunch?
- DAVE Good idea, but¹ (I/speak) to Mike first. He wants some help in his garden on Sunday.
- SHANNON Really? But² (he/sell) his house because he's going to move to South Africa next month.
- DAVE That's right, but if the garden looks nice, he may get more money! But³ (we/do) something this weekend, Shannon. What about a film on Sunday evening?
- SHANNON I'm afraid not, Dave.⁴ (I/meet) a colleague from our New York office at the airport.
- DAVE OK, but it's my birthday next weekend, so⁵ (we/have) a meal together on Saturday.
- SHANNON Sure.⁶ (I/go) to the dentist's in the morning, but I'm free for the rest of the day.

Exercise 4:

Wrong or unnecessary things at a new job

Luca, Head Waiter at 'Pasta! Pasta!', is talking to Hugo on his first day at work. Add mustn't or don't have to.

'First of all, you start work at 6 p.m. and you mustn't⁰ be late. Never! But you¹ take a bus home, because we'll book you a taxi. OK? And you² work on Mondays, because the restaurant is closed! You see? We're nice people here! Now, what about clothes? Well, you³ wear jeans. They're not very smart, are they? But you⁴ wear a black jacket - we will give you a nice white shirt instead every evening. Now, what's next? Oh yes. This will make you happy. You⁵ know anything about wine, because we have our own wine waiter, Giuseppe. OK, let's talk about the guests. Sometimes they can be difficult, but rule number one is that you⁶ argue with the customers! They are paying for everything here! OK, I think that's everything. You'll meet Mr Locatelli, the boss, tomorrow. He's a nice man, but remember, you⁷ talk when the boss is talking. He doesn't like that. Oh, I forgot something nice, Hugo. You⁸ cook your own meal in the evening anymore, because we will give you some pasta to take home! Fantastic!'
