UNIT 1 TEST:	DATE:
1. READ AND COMPLETE USING THESE WORDS:
good, machine, artifici	al , countryside, subjects, ga	adgets, weeks, Londo	n
Alan Turing is born in	in 1912. He learns t	to read in three	and he loves numbers. He learns nu	umbers by heart. When he is	six years old he starts	5 primary school. He is very	at maths. He also	loves doing puzzles ar	nd secret codes.
When he is thirteen he starts s	econdary school. He is ver	y good at science and	maths.
But the teachers aren't always	happy. They say he has to w	ork hard in all	not only maths and science.
At university, in Cambridge, I	he invents the Turing	After Univers	sity he works at Bletchley Park , a big	g house in the	He works with a tea	am of other people to crack the secre	t code , Enigma. Later, Alan	develops one of the fi	irst computers and also works on _	intelligence.
His work is very important for e	electronic that we	e use todav.

2. TICK THE GADGET

- You can use this in your car to find place	ces:
- You can use this to see people from you	ur computer:
- You can use this to time activities:
- You can use this on your head to listen	to music:
- This is for saving photos, music, docum	nents:
- You can use this to save and listen to n	nusic:
	A calculator.
	A video games console.
- ,	: A charger.
5. MATCH THE QUESTIONS TO THE	ANSWERS:
1. Have you got a calculator?	Yes, she often does.
2. Does she play football?	No, he never does.
3. Does your brother watch TV?	It's 59 €.
4. How much is it?	Oh, yes please. I need a calculator.
5. Can I help you?	Yes, I have.

6. WRITE ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY. USE FREQUENCY ADVERBS

- a. TV
- b. Do homework
- c. computer
- d. laptop
- e. books

5. WRTITE IN ORDER

tennis my plays brother often shopping go we often Friday on a computer Mary at school often uses never I photos take my with camera

6. WRITE THE MEANING OF THESE EXPRESSIONS (IN GALICIAN OR SPANISH)

Come on!

Look over here!

Well done!

You're right!

