

All Human Rights for All

A. Match up the two parts of each sentence to find some statements that make part of the “Universal Declaration of Human Rights”!
Just drag and drop.

- a) All human beings are born _____
- b) Everyone has the right _____
- c) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived _____
- d) No one shall be subjected _____
- e) No one may be compelled _____
- f) Everyone, as a member of society, has the right _____
- g) The will of the people shall be _____
- h) Everyone has the right to take part _____
- i) Everyone has duties _____
- j) No one shall be held _____

1. to torture or to cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment.
2. to belong to an association.
3. to freedom of opinion and expression.
4. of his property.
5. in the government of his country.
6. free and equal in dignity and rights.
7. in slavery or servitude.
8. to social security.
9. the basis of the authority of the Government.
10. to the community.

Types of Freedom

B. Complete the different types of freedom with the adequate concept. Drag and drop.

- Freedom of _____ – the right to have public meetings
- Freedom of _____ – the right to meet people and to form organizations
- Freedom of _____ – the right to see any information that is held by the government
- Freedom of _____ – the right to choose which religion to belong to, or to belong to no religion
- Freedom of _____ – the right to practise any religion
- Freedom of _____ – the right to express any opinions in public
- Freedom of _____ – the right to say or write anything
- Freedom of the _____ – the right to publish news and opinions in the press without the government removing any of the information (censorship)
- Freedom of _____ – the right to make decisions about your own life

choice – expression – religion – speech association – worship – information – press – assembly