

THE POPULATION OF SPAIN AND EUROPE

1. Look at the graph and answer.

- a. Has the population increased or decreased since 1960?

- b. What is the current population of Spain?

2. Match.

a. Birth rate:

Nº years a person is expected to live.

b. Death rate:

People who leave their country to live in another one.

c. Life expectancy:

Same nº people living in a large area.

d. Immigrants:

People who come to live in a new country.

e. Emigrants:

Lots of people living in a small area.

f. Densely populated:

Nº people die in a place in a year.

g. Sparsely populated:

Nº babies born in a place in a year.

3. Read the text and answer the questions.

In 2014, in the town of Brujillas, 45 babies were born and 23 people died.

a. What was the natural growth of Brujillas in 2014?

b. Did the population of Brujillas increase or decrease?

4. Look at the pie charts of Spain and answer the questions.

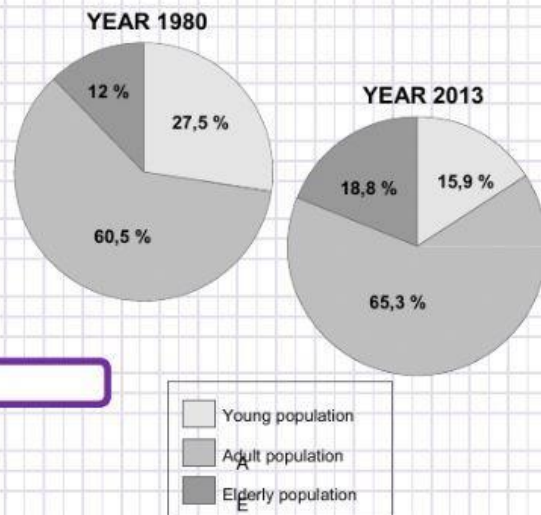

a. In 2013, what was the percentage of the elderly population?

b. And in 1980?

c. In 2013, what was the percentage of the young population?

d. And in 1980?

e. How have these two groups changed?

5. Classify these groups of people.

Employed people

Disable people

Unemployed people

Students

Retired people

Active Population

Inactive Population

6. Write the reasons to explain these facts.

a. High life expectancy in Spain

b. Migration

c. Ageing population in Europe

JAUQUE MATE

7. Answer these questions.

a. What's the population of Spain?

b. What's the population density in Spain?

c. Where is the population denser in Spain?

d. What's the population of Madrid?

e. What's the population of Barcelona?

f. Where are the lowest population densities in Spain?

g. What's the population of Europe?

h. What's the population density of Europe?

