Plural and the plural possessive with letters and numbers. Choose the correct form in each sentence.

1. Darryl still dresses like he lives in the [1960's / 1960s].
2. Now I've learned my [ABCs / ABC's], won't you come and play with me?
3. Be sure to mind your [*p*s and *q*s / p's and q's] at the formal dinner tonight.
4. Bob's poker hand includes a queen, a jack, and three [4's / 4s].
5. When the panel gives its presentation, Cherie says she'll be most interested in the different [Ph.D.'s / Ph.D.s'] observations and opinions.

LIVEWORKSHEETS