

SLIDESHOW WORKSHEET

Australia, also nicknamed O__ or the land D____ U____, was discovered in the ____ century by captain _____. It is situated in the _____ hemisphere so their seasons are the o_____ of ours.

Its first inhabitants, the A_____, have lived there for more than _____ years, however nowadays they only represent ____% of the _____ million population. They are the inventors of a famous instrument, the d_____, and of course the b_____. The first European inhabitants of Australia were p_____ and c_____ sent there from GB.

Its capital is _____ but the biggest city is _____, with its famous monument the _____, and B_____ beach, popular worldwide. Other big cities are A_____, B_____, M_____ and P_____. They are all situated next to the s_____.

In the center, also called the outback, we can see U_____, the most famous monolith in the world. At sea there is the G_____ B_____ R_____, unique in the world.

We can find many endemic species there (which live only there and nowhere else in the world). Can you recognise them ?

koala-kangaroo-wombat-platipus-dingo-sugar glider-tasmanian devil

However there are many dangerous animals too, like poisonous _____ and _____.

The currency is the Australian _____.

Do you know what the elements on the flag represent ?

The Australians are quite sporty : name 4 outdoor activities they enjoy practising

Do you know famous Australian people ?