

EVALUATION ACTIVITY

1. In pairs write a 500-word essay about what you understood from the reading and what you learned from it, the text should be in the future tense, remember to use capital letters and punctuation marks. You have one hour to complete all the activities.

1. Complete paragraphs one and two of the Christmas reading with the words that are in the box.

Candidates, Jamie, applicants, people, future, Charlotte, chefs, used

The people who were interviewing the young were surprised – they usually try to find the best person for a job, but was asking them to find the worst! Many of the had dropped out of school or run away from home. Jamie has a vision – he wants to give hope to young who feel that they have no . Both Sam and say that 'Fifteen Cornwall' has saved their lives. They have become and have excellent futures ahead of them. They to think they had nothing, but now they have everything.