

Restaurant situations

1. Look at the menu. What kind of restaurant might it be? What dishes would you like to order? What dishes don't make your mouth water? You are going to hear some people eating out at The Globe Restaurant

Below are ten questions asked in the restaurant. Listen and put them in order you will hear them in.

- 1 Could I just have a coffee, please?
- 2 Would you like to see the dessert menu?
- 3 Does it contain any meat at all?
- 4 Shall we leave a tip?
- 5 Could we get some water as well, please?
- 6 Are you ready to order?
- 7 Have you booked?
- 8 Would you like a high chair for the little girl?
- 9 Could we have the bill, please?
- 10 Could you get us a cloth, please?

Listen again and tick what was happening in each conversation.

Dialogue 1:

Booking a table Paying for the meal
Waiting for a table

Dialogue 2:

Complaining about food Taking a table
Leaving the restaurant

Dialogue 3:

Making an order Waiting for the menu
Paying for the meal

Dialogue 4:

Asking for help Complaining about service
Problem with food

Dialogue 5:

Choosing a dessert Ordering a coffee
Asking for the bill

Dialogue 6:

Asking for the bill Mistake in the bill
Refusing to pay

By Mary Mulyarchik