

Write a conversation about a time something went wrong.

You can write about a real event in your life, or you can invent a scenario and use the picture to help you.

1. Write a conversation between you and someone else. What is the problem?
What happened? What do you need to do to fix the problem?

