

Part 3Questions 11–15

You will hear a radio interview with a university student called Daisy Clarke, who has just written her first novel.

For each question, circle the correct answer A, B or C.

11 When does Daisy usually write?

A in the evenings

B early in the morning

C between classes at college

[1]

12 Why did Daisy choose to write historical fantasy?

A She is particularly interested in history.

B She likes being able to use her imagination.

C She can find information about past events easily.

[1]

13 The story in Daisy's novel is based on

A something that a friend told her.

B another novel she has read.

C a childhood game.

[1]

14 Daisy thinks her talks in schools are popular because

A she makes them fun for the teenagers.

B she has interests in common with the teenagers.

C she is close to the teenagers in age.

[1]

15 What does Daisy say about her next novel?

A She has thought of a title.

B She has done the research already.

C She has decided on the main character.

[1]