

1 Answers the questions.

Which sector has the lowest number of workers? _____

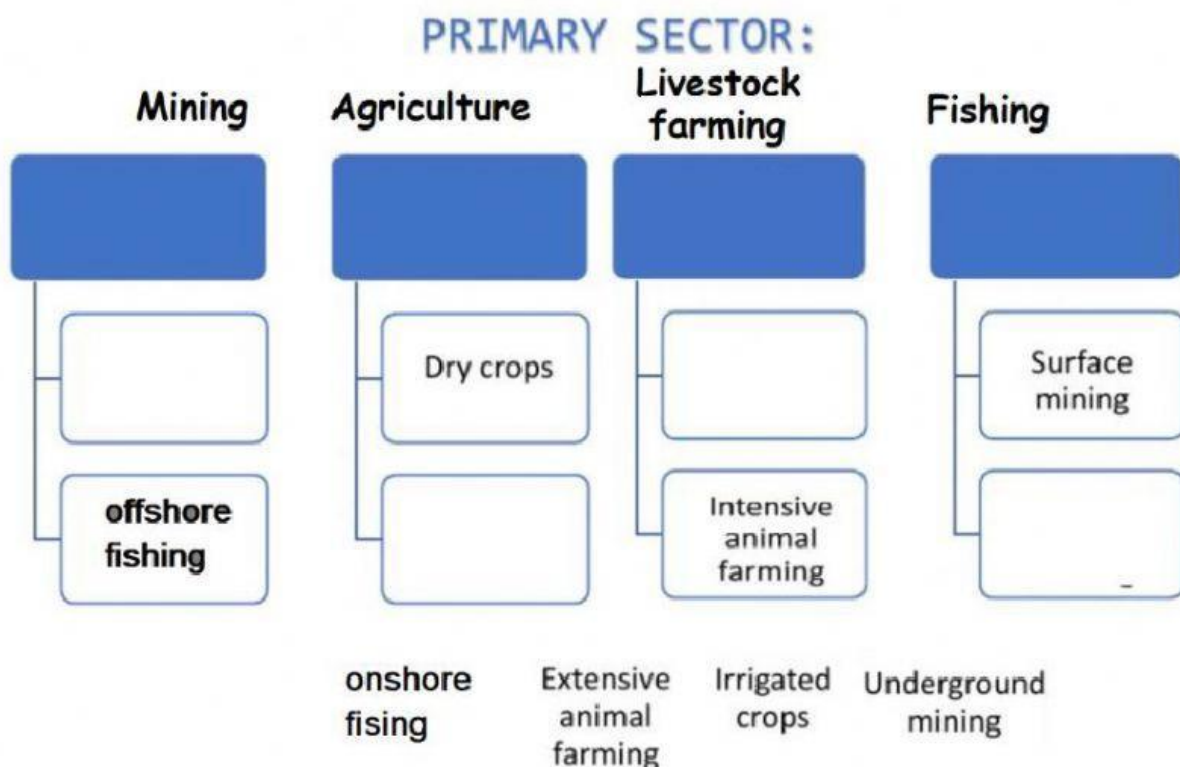

How many works? _____

How many people are working in the secondary sector? _____

Which sector more people are working in? _____

2 Complete the diagram.

3 What type of industry is this?

This makes products that others industries need. _____

This makes products that go directly to consumers. _____

This makes products that are used as raw materials. _____

The manufacturing of metals. _____

Processed food, clothing and furniture. _____

Machinery, transport equipment and construction material. _____

4 Identify the activity each photo shows and the sector it belongs to.

Photo	Activity	Sector

5 Write true or false.

- The tertiary sector is the services sector. _____
- Tourism industries include beach, cultural and rural tourism. _____
- Domestic trade is trade between two countries. _____
- Exports are products that are brought from other countries. _____
- Transport services are needed to move people and goods. _____
- Europe hasn't a dense network of road and railways. _____

6 Explain what type of trade you have made.

- I would like to buy an orange. This is _____
- I would like to buy 5,000 cars from Germany. This is _____ retail trade	wholesale trade	foreign	domestic

--------------	-----------------	---------	----------

7 What type of tourism are there? What do they involve?

