Children can be adversely affected by the influence of television.

To what extent do you agree or disagree with this statement? Give reasons for your answer.

Almost every family has a television these days, and many children watch a whole range of programmes every day. Some people believe that television (1) ..... be harmful to children, saying that it (2) ..... influence behaviour in a negative way.

There are a lot of programmes on television that are not educational and that contain violence and bad language.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

However, watching violence on television (3)..... encourage violent behaviour in children.

This (4) ..... be true in cases of children who have already exhibited violent tendencies, but it (5) ..... be true of all children, otherwise we would have an epidemic of child crime.

It is also argued that bad language on television (6) ..... encourage the same in children.

However, overall I believe that restricting children's television viewing to mainly educational programmes shown at a time of day when there is no violence or bad language (7) ..... overcome any risks of television being a bad influence.
