

Further Education.

Around the age of sixteen you must make one of the biggest decisions 1) your life. Do I stay on at school and hopefully go on to the university 2) ? Do I leave and start work or begin a training 3) ? The decision is yours, but it may be 4) remembering two things: there's more unemployment 5) people who haven't been to the university, and people who have the right 6) will have a big advantage in the competition for jobs.

If you decide to go 7) into a job, there are many opportunities for training. Getting qualification will 8) you to get on more quickly in many careers, and evening classes allow you to learn 9) you earn. Starting work and taking a break to study when you're older is 10) possibility. This way, you can save up money for your student days, as well as 11) practical work experience.
