

Unit 25 Lesson 3

Socializing

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

What about you?

Have you ever run into an old friend or colleague in this way?

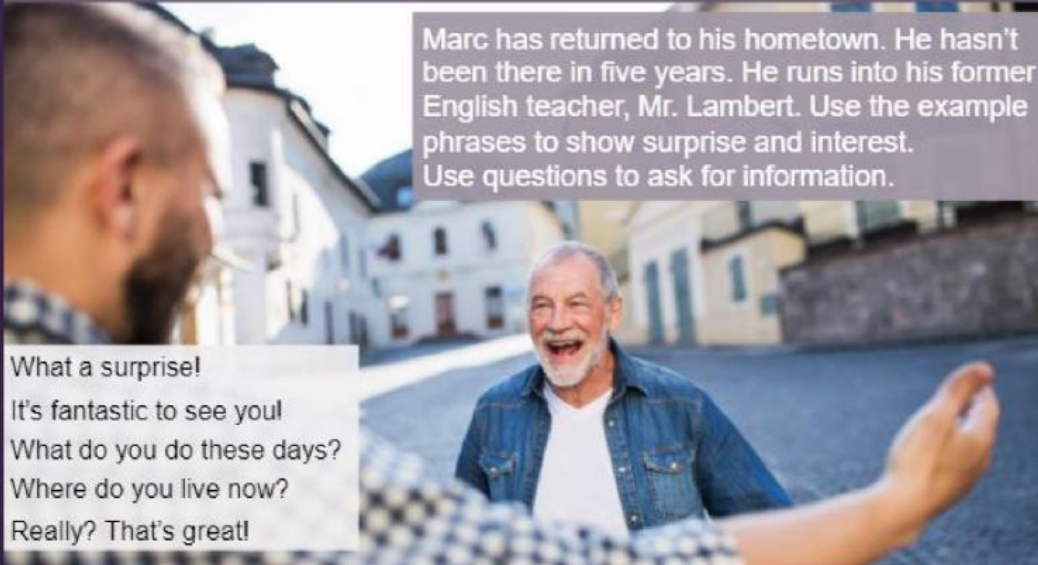

Who did you meet?
Where were you?
What did you talk about?
Were your lives the same or different as the last time you met?

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

What would they say?

Have you ever run into an old friend or colleague in this way?

Marc has returned to his hometown. He hasn't been there in five years. He runs into his former English teacher, Mr. Lambert. Use the example phrases to show surprise and interest. Use questions to ask for information.

What a surprise!
It's fantastic to see you!
What do you do these days?
Where do you live now?
Really? That's great!

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Bye!

Here are some examples of ways to say goodbye.

It was great to see you.
Nice to see you again.
I'm sorry, but I have to go.
Take care of yourself.
Hope to see you again soon.
Look after yourself.
Bye for now.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Expressing interest

There are a lot of positive adjectives you can use to show interest.

cool
great excellent wonderful fantastic good unbelievable terrific

How great!
That's fantastic!
What terrific news!
That's so cool!

You can also just use an adjective by itself, such as 'Great!'

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Eddie and Stafford

Eddie and Stafford went to university together.
They bump into each other for the first time in four years.

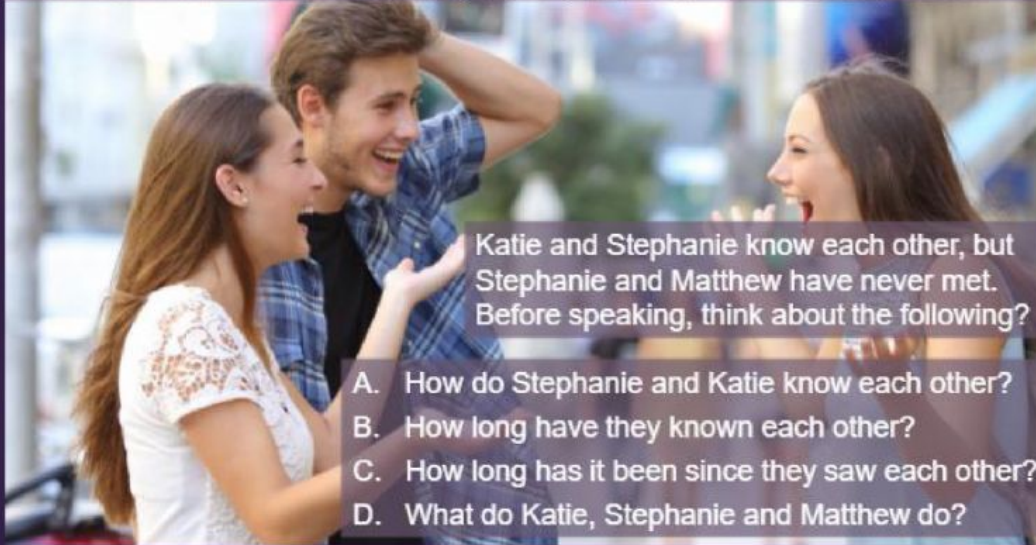

Play the role of Eddie or Stafford.

1. Eddie greets Stafford.
2. Stafford greets Eddie and asks for some news.
3. Eddie gives some news about his job or studies.
4. Stafford shows interest and says something positive.
5. Eddie asks for some information about Stafford.
6. Stafford asks another question about Eddie's family or friends.
7. Eddie gives some more information.
8. Stafford needs to leave and say goodbye.
9. Eddie says goodbye.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Great to see you!

You listened to Harry, Maria and Yolanda. This time, make a conversation for Katie, Stephanie, and Katie's friend Matthew.

Katie and Stephanie know each other, but Stephanie and Matthew have never met. Before speaking, think about the following?

- A. How do Stephanie and Katie know each other?
- B. How long have they known each other?
- C. How long has it been since they saw each other?
- D. What do Katie, Stephanie and Matthew do?