

Subject and Predicate

I.- Read the sentences and choose if the underlined part of the sentence corresponds to the subject or to the predicate.

1.- Marlene writes the report.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

6.- He helps my sister.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

2.- My cat is on the coach.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

7.- Peter Parker is the spiderman.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

3.- The spider makes a web.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

8.- February and March are months of the year.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

4.- Anne, Michael and I are neighbors.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

9.- Reading expands your vocabulary.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

5.- Katy and Jacob play videogames together. 10. Understanding syntax helps your English learning.

a.- Subject b.- predicate

a.- Subject b.- predicate

Parts of the speech

II. Identify the nouns (N) and the verbs (V) in the following chart.

book - think - to solve - the magician - to report - music

Mrs. Monroe - they - reading - love - money - air expand - gifts - The Smiths - the bookstore - paint - jump

III. Describe the function of each word in the sentence according to the parts of the speech.

noun – verb – adverb – adjective – preposition – article – conjunction – interjection – pronoun

1.- Manhattan is a borough in New York.

a.- Manhattan _____

b.- is _____ c.- a _____ d.- borough _____

e.- in _____ f.- New _____

g.- York _____

2.- The blue folder and the black pen are on the desk.

a.- The _____

b.- blue, black _____

c.- folder, pen _____ d.- and _____ e.- are _____

f.- on _____ g.- desk _____