

FESTIVALS AND FESTIVALS

INSTRUCTIONS: Read the celebrations and festivals and complete the calendar

JANUARY	FEBRUARY	MARCH	APRIL
MAY	JUNE	JULY	AUGUST
SEPTEMBER	OCTOBER	NOVEMBER	DECEMBER

May Day

This is the Spring festival. It's in May, of course.

St George's Day

St George is the patron saint of England. St George's Day is in the Spring. The first letter of this month is A.

Mother's Day

On Mother's Day children give presents and cards to their mum. It's in the Spring. This month has got five letters. The first letter is M.

St David's Day

St David is the patron saint of Wales. St David's Day is in the Spring. This month has got five letters. The second letter is A.

Notting Hill Carnival

This is a big Caribbean carnival in London. It's in the Summer. The first letter of this month is not J.

April Fool's Day

On April Fool's Day people play tricks on their friends. It's in March. Only joking! It's in April, of course.

Back to School

This is when the new school year starts. Everybody goes back to school after the summer holidays. It's in the Autumn. This month has got nine letters.

Summer Holidays

This isn't a festival but it is the end of school and the start of the summer holidays. This month is in the Summer. The first letter is J and the last letter is Y.

Valentine's Day

This is the festival for people in love. It's in the Winter. This month has got eight letters. The third letter is B.

St Andrew's Day

St Andrew is the patron saint of Scotland. St Andrew's Day is in the Autumn. This month has got eight letters.

Christmas Day

This is the most important Christian festival of the year. It is in the Winter. This month has got eight letters. The fifth letter is M.

Father's Day

On Father's Day children give presents and cards to their dad. It's in the Summer. This month has got four letters. The third letter is N.

Bonfire Night

This is a festival with fireworks and bonfires. It's in the Autumn. The third letter of this month is V.

New Year's Day

This is the first day of the new year. It's in the Winter. The first letter of this month is J.

Hallowe'en

This is the festival of ghosts, witches and vampires. It is in the Autumn. This month has got two Os in it.

St Patrick's Day

St Patrick is the patron saint of Ireland. St Patrick's Day is in the Spring. This month has got five letters. The last letter is H.