IELTS Writing Tips

- You only have a few minutes to plan your answer. You need to get used to writing short notes. As far as possible, write just one word to remind you of each idea you have. This way you maximize your thinking and planning time.
- You need some variety of ideas. An answer based on only one or two ideas is likely to be weak.
- You may not have very many ideas, but 250 words is not a long essay.
- You need to choose your best arguments and drop the weaker ones.
- Make your points stronger by giving examples to support them.

You should spend about 40 minutes on this task.

Write about the following topic:

The most important consideration when choosing any career or job is having a high income.

To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Give reasons for your answer and include any relevant examples from your own knowledge or experience.

Write at least 250 words.
