MONEY VOCABULARY

1. Fill the gaps with the correct preposition

1. - Maybe we could track their payments. - You know, they're probably smart enough to pay ____ cash.
2. Bitcoin can be used to pay ____ a number of services, including Xbox Live and Skype.
3. He maxed out two credit cards, borrowed money ____ family and friends, and put his entire life savings into dogecoin.
4. Self-made millionaire Timothy Kim spent $70000 ____ mentorship over the course of six months.
5. Margo borrows $1700, agreeing to pay it ____ with 4% annual interest after 8 months. How much interest will she pay?

2. Choose the correct option

1. Often cited as the richest person who ever lived, oil tycoon John D. Rockefeller was ____ $340bn in today's money, almost 2% of total US economic output.
A. wealthiest B. worth C. purchase

2. When Linda's business failed, she ____ $45,000 to suppliers and other creditors.
A. lend B. afforded C. owed

3. Subprime ____ is a type of home loan given to individuals with poor, incomplete, or nonexistent credit histories.
A. mortgage B. real estate C. taxes

4.The _____ market has long provided a way for individuals to secretly launder or invest stolen money and other illegally gained funds.
A. bank teller B. real estate C. inherit

5. About 80% of the people visiting banks are just queueing up to _____ money.
A. withdraw B. inherit C. lend

6. Theodore Conrad showed up for work as a ____ and at the end of his shift stole $215,000, stuffed it into a paper bag -- and vanished.
A. ATM B. afford C. bank teller

7. Now passengers who ____ insurance on the official website of the skyup.aero will receive reliable insurance by VUSO.
A. take out B. withdraw C. waste

8. The firm was a loss, and he got a ____ from a bank.
A. loan B. inheritance C. currency

LIVEWORKSHEETS