

The History of Thanksgiving

In 1620 a group of Pilgrims started their journey from England to North America on a ship called the MAYFLOWER.

After they arrived they have / had / haved many problems. They couldn't / can't grow food or build homes very well. The winter was / were really cold and lots of them became / becomed ill and die / died.

One day, in the spring, the Pilgrims meet / metted / met two Native Americans - Squanto and Samoset. They showed / show the Pilgrims how to hunt and catch fish, and how to build homes.

They also taught / teach / taught them how to grow corn and by the autumn things were / was much better for the Pilgrims.

They wanted to say thank you, so they invite / invited the Native Americans to a special meal. It was / were the first Thanksgiving dinner.
