LISTENING 4TH ESO

5 Listen to a radio programme about British spending habits and tick (✓) the sentences T (true) or F (false)

	True	False
1. British households spend most of their money on housing and energy
2. Sarah Bennett refers to going to the cinema as culture
3. British households spend more money on healthy snacks than on sweet ones
4. The interwiever's children spend most of their pocket money on their pets
5. Save the children is a charity organisation

How much does the average British household spend on the ítems in column B? Listen again and match A to B.

1. £3.20 on	a. Mobile phones
2. £3.60 on	b. Sweet snacks
3. £13.20 on	c. Charity organisations
4. £4.60 on	d. Gambling
5. £2.70 on	e. pets

---

6 Listen to a school presentation about the effects of global warming. Then choose the best summary.

a. Global warming is causing plants and animals to change their feeding habits
b. Global warming affects plants and animals because they depend on each other
c. The effects of global warming are more noticeable in spring, when the temperature starts to rise

Listen again and tick (✓) the sentences T (true) or F (false)

	True	False
1. Global warming is making the winters colder
2. Today, plants are flowering earlier then they have for 250 years
3. It is important for pollinators to be around plants when they are flowering
4. Some birds fly to the UK before there is enough food for them to survive
5. The period between spring and autumn was longer at the beginning of the previous century

LIVEWORKSHEETS