7 Look at the sentences in the grammar box. Then complete these sentences with the correct quantifiers in bold in the grammar box.

1 We use some and a lot of in affirmative statements with countable or uncountable nouns.
2 We use _____ in questions and in negative statements with countable or uncountable nouns.
3 We use _____ to talk about small quantities in affirmative statements with countable nouns.
4 We use _____ to talk about small quantities in affirmative statements with uncountable nouns.
5 We use _____ in negative statements and in questions with countable nouns.
6 We use _____ in negative statements and in questions with uncountable nouns.

8 Circle the correct quantifiers to complete the sentences.

1 How much / many trash do you recycle?
2 I recycle a few / a little things, like glass and plastic bottles.
3 I don't recycle many / much glass.
4 I recycle a few / a little paper each week.
5 Do you have much / any recycling bins?
6 There are some / any old TVs for sale.
7 You shouldn't throw away many / any paper!
8 How many / much times can paper be recycled?
9 Nowadays, a lot of / a little cities and towns have special recycling centers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS