Read and complete the information for Fatima and Jan.

City profiles

Fatima Costa lives in Patriarca, a suburb in the east of Sao Paulo, Brazil. Shw works in the centre of the city, near Praca Republica. Every day Fatima takes an underground train to work in the morning and back home in the evening. She thinks travelling on the Sao Paulo underground system is quick and convenient. But trains are very crowded in the rush hour and she often can't find a seat.

Jan van Looy works in the main train station in Amsterdam. He works for the Dutch Railways, but he doesn't catch a train to work. He cycles from his home in the suburbs. Cycling is very popular in Amsterdam because the city is flat and distances are not very great. Jan cycles to work because it is very cheap, but it's quite slow and it's horrible when it rains.
