

Non-defining relative clauses

Directions: Choose the word in the box to fill in the blank.

who, whose, which, where

1. The TV,.....belongs to my sister, doesn't seem to be working.
2. Jane,.....dress I borrowed for the party, is coming to visit this afternoon.
3. The house,.....is now very comfortable, was decorated when we moved in.
4. That woman over there,.....hair is very long, is my aunt.
5. That high school, .....is quite highly regarded, has just hired a new teacher.
6. Mr Brown,.....works with my father, shook my hand and said hello.
7. My friend,.....sister just got married, will be visiting me this afternoon.
8. I met a very interesting song writer yesterday evening,.....song I sang quite often.
9. My garden,.....is quite big, is now very overgrown.
10. The woods, .....I like to go walking, have been flooded in the recent storm.
11. My dentist,.....I've been seeing for years, has just retired.
12. I went to my hometown last weekend,.....I met up with an old friend.
13. The black horse,.....I rode this afternoon, has sprained its ankle.
14. The beach,.....I lost my gold earrings, is one of my favourite places.
15. My car,.....is quite old, broke down while I was on the motorway.