Discussion

Work in pairs. Discuss these questions:

When you fill in a form, are you happy to give this information:

Your age?

Your marital status?

Your income?

Are there any other questions you don't like answering?

Reading

Read through the four conversations below. Who are the people and what is the situation?

Conversation 1

A: Your blood pressure is absolutely fine. Have you been eating normally?

B: Oh yes. The same as normal.

A: And do you take any regular exercise?

B: Yes, I play squash twice a week.

A: Mm. Tell me, how much do you weigh?

B: About 68 kilos.

Conversation 2

A: Hello, I'm Jean Walker. We've just moved in next door.

B: Paul Burton. Pleased to meet you. Do you work locally?

A: Yes, I'm a solicitor with a firm on the High Street.

B: A solicitor. That's a good job. How much do you earn?

Conversation 3

A: Hello. I'm looking for a white tennis shirt.

B: OK. Tennis shirts are over here.

A: As you can see, I'll need a fairly large size.

B: Yes, I can see that. How much do you weigh, if you don't mind me asking?

Conversation 4

A: Gareth, you will be delighted to hear that we would like to offer you the job.

B: Great! Thank you very much.

A: We need to talk a bit about salaries.

B: Right, yes, of course.

A: Remind me, how much do you earn at the moment?

B: About £35,000 a year.

A: Yes, well, we won't be able to give you more than that initially, but we should be able to match it.

"Good morning. I'd like to talk to you about the Bible."

Discussion

1. In each dialogue there is a personal question. Decide if the question is appropriate to the situation and the speakers. If it is not appropriate, why isn't it?
2. The questions in conversations 2 and 3 do not have answers. How do you think the speaker should reply in these situations?
3. Have you ever been asked an inappropriate question? When and who by? How did you respond? Have you ever asked an inappropriate question by accident? What happened?

Discussion

Look at the questions below. Decide who has the right to ask you these questions. It may be a particular person, for example, a doctor, a priest, a police officer, a partner/lover. It might be anybody or it might be nobody. Write anyone, a particular person or no one next to each question.

How old are you?
How much do you weigh?
How tall are you?
How much do you earn?
Have you got a boy/girlfriend?
Are you a virgin?
Are you married?
Were your parents married?

Have you ever taken drugs?
Are you planning to start a family?
Who did you vote for at the last election?
Have you got a criminal record?
Are you gay?
How much was your CD-player?
What religion are you?
How do you feel about abortion?

Work in pairs. Ask your partner the questions. Use the expressions in the Language work to help you ask and answer the questions.

Your best friend

Could you say these things to your best friend?

Your breath is terrible.
You smell nice. What is it?
You need a haircut.
Your boy/girlfriend's got nice legs.
I wish you'd learn how to make coffee.

I think you've had enough to drink.
You look silly in that shirt.
I think you should ring and apologise.
If you want to smoke, do it outside.
Your fly is undone. (fly = trouser zip)

Could you say the same things to your teacher or your boss?

Do you have a friend you can say anything to?
Are you a tactful person or are you more blunt and direct?
Do you think being direct is a good or a bad thing?
