Christmas is probably the most popular celebration in the world. On this day, December 25th, people celebrate the birth of Jesus. In general, families make time to be together, talk, and exchange gifts. A delicious dinner is also part of this celebration. However, every country celebrates this day in different ways.

1. Read this article about Christmas.

Talking about Christmas worldwide is fun, but it would take a long time. However, there is a clear difference between celebrations in Latin America and Europe and the United States. In Ecuador, families make a family dinner, as well as in the USA. The traditional meal is turkey or another traditional food from the region. It's common for American people to make a reservation in a fancy restaurant, and at night they do some reading. In Ecuador, families pray "la novena." In Latin America, people usually do the shopping a few weeks before Christmas, but in the USA, parents buy gifts one or two months before. It does not matter where people are; many people celebrate the birth of Jesus, in the Catholic religion.
