LISTENING

Escucha el audio y completa el ejercicio.

This is Simon. He's English. Simon's a and he lives in London with his wife and . He's got a daughter, Sandra, who's , and a son, Daniel, who's . His wife's name's Donna. She's a .Simon works in the centre of London and he meets from other countries. he likes his job, but he doesn't like the and he doesn't like working at night or at the . He likes being with his family.

Dear Sir / Madam,
I stayed at the Sea View Hotel last from October 23rd until the 27th. I think I left my in the hotel room on the next to the bed.
I in room number on the 5th floor next to the .
Please can you for it and if you find it, can you phone me on this ?
.
Thank you very much.
Ned Kelly.

A traditional English breakfast is a very meal. My dad used to have sausages, , bacon, tomatoes, mushrooms and lots of bread and for breakfast.
Now he has a light breakfast, just some toast and jam or marmalade and a cup of .
Sometimes he has a glass of .
I start my with a cup of strong Spanish coffee and a bowl of muesli or cereal.
I sometimes have some toast with olive oil about if I'm feeling .
What do you have for breakfast?

LIVEWORKSHEETS