Subject Pronouns
Grammar

RULES
A subject pronoun is used as the subject of a sentence. It tells whom or what the sentence is about.
I like the Stars baseball players.

They work hard in every game.

A subject pronoun, like a subject noun, may be singular or plural.

Singular	I, you, he, she, it
Plural	we, you, they

Guided Practice

Name the subject pronoun in each sentence. Writ it on the line

EXAMPLE: You hit the baseball out of the park. You
1. I had trouble hitting the baseball.

2. We have a good coach, Ms. Briggs. _____

3. She helps our team with plays. _____

4. I learned to watch the ball carefully. _____

5. It sometimes comes quickly over home plate. _____

6. You can watch the game in the park on Saturday. _____

7. We will play the Bluebirds. _____

8. They have an excellent record this year. _____

9. I try to cheer up my friend Manny. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. He had a sprained arm this year, and couldn't play. _____

11. We will play the Wolves next week. _____

12. I will substitute for a missing player. _____

13. She has a broken arm. _____

14. You can help the coach plan plays against the Wolves. _____

15. They will have a hard time beating this team! _____

B. Write each pair of sentences. Complete the second sentence with the correct subject pronoun.

16. Tran and I wait._____ will bat soon.

17. The Wolves have a run. _____ are now ahead.

18. Joanna is at bat. _____ plans her swing.

19. Dad is in the crowd._____ likes to watch the games.

20. Carla hits the ball. _____flies over the fence.

LIVEWORKSHEETS