

Student Name: _____
Form 1PW Social Studies
Family Functions/Family history Exam

A) List the five functions of the family. Explain in your own words, what is meant by each function. (10 marks)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

B) State whether the sentence is true or false by placing a T or F in the spaces below (10 marks)

1. Beliefs and traditions, morals, and values form part of the cultural function of families _____
2. Children learn from their families how to interact and communicate with others and how to form relationships through the process of socialisation. _____
3. A father going to work every day is an example of the economic function _____
4. A married couple having children is not an example of the procreation function _____
5. The family is the basic unit of society _____
6. A family tree cannot be used to track some one's ancestry _____
7. Ancestry refers to someone's line of relatives relatives starting with your parents and grand parents and going back in time to each generation's parents and grand parents _____
8. Basic economic needs are food, clothing and shelter _____
9. Families do not provide love, care and attention for their members _____
10. All families procreate _____

Total /20 Marks