

DICTATION.

This is an activity for you to improve your listening skills.

Focus on new words, grammar and pronunciation in this short text. Listen many times – enough for you to you understand everything and fill in the gaps in order to complete the text.

READING.

Reading is one of the greatest pleasures in life, I would be lost

I can't remember any time in my life when _____.

I guess you could call bookworm I've always got my head buried in a book.

_____ It's a part of who we are. We learn many things about the world from books. We entertain ourselves with great novels from all over the world, and from the past. Even, novels from hundreds of years ago are a great read. You notice

Everyone seems lost in their own world. The world of reading is not a bad place to be lost in.

Now answer the following questions about the listening:

1. What does the man think about reading?
2. What do you understand by bookworm?
3. According to this man, what do we learn from books?
