

Present simple & Present continuous

29

In the following sentences, we are going to combine the Present Simple and the Present Continuous to show contrast between what we usually do and what is happening right now.

Example:

He usually has English lessons at school but today he is having a virtual class.

Read and choose the correct option

1. My dad usually to work but now he home office.

2. My friends usually videogames but today they are cards.

3. I usually lunch at school but today I at home.

4. My mum usually meetings in her office but today she a meeting through the internet.

5. My baby sister usually yoghurt but today she cereal.

Cathy wants to get fit, so she has decided to make some changes.
look at the pictures and write sentences.

At lunchtime / eat burgers / eat a salad

At lunchtime, she usually eats burgers but today she is eating a salad.

After lunch/ read comics / ride her bike

After lunch, she usually

In the afternoon / eat chocolate / eat yoghurt

In the evening / watch TV / do exercise at home