Read the conversation and answer the questions. Hoa: Have you ever done volunteer work, Minh? Minh: Yes. I take part in a programme that helps disabled children. Hoa: Really? What do you do there? Minh: Every Sunday, I go to the center and teach the children how to draw. You know the children there like drawing very much. Hoa: Wonderful. What else do you do? Minh: All the members in the programme try their best to help the children there. Some of us bath the children, some clean the house, some teach them how to cook, make cakes, some teach them English, singing and dancing. All children there enjoy learning new things. Hoa: Do you often give them toys, books or clothes? Minh: Sometimes. We've asked people to donate books and clothes to children. And I also raise money by selling my pictures. Hoa: Oh, drawing is not only your hobby but also a volunteer work. Minh: Right! Would you like to join us?
