

PART 3 You will hear a man called Stephen Mills talking to a group of people about a trip to India to see tigers.

Man: Hello. I'm Stephen Mills. I will travel with you on the Tiger Tour to India, but I'm (1) your tour guide. I work as an (2) and I'm going to take some photographs of tigers so that I can use them when I paint some pictures later. An expert guide will join the group when we (3) in India, but I'm leading the group until then. We leave London on the 6th of November, arriving in India the (4) It's a good time of year to visit the wildlife park where the tigers live. The rainy season finishes in (5) And later in the year, the park gets more crowded and the tigers become shy. We'll spend (6) in the wildlife park. There are twenty other types of animal and three hundred types of bird to see as well as tigers. There are (7) of us altogether and everything is organised for our comfort by the tour company. For example, although we're in the jungle, we won't have to sleep in tents! The (8) where we'll stay are all very comfortable. To be sure of seeing tigers, we'll stay in two different parts of the wildlife park. We'll spend three days in the (9), where we'll travel around in an open truck, and the rest of the time in the (10), where we'll travel around on (11) That should be fun! On the way back to London, we have dinner and (12) night's bed and breakfast in the Indian capital, Delhi. There you can either go sightseeing or go shopping, whichever you prefer. But please note that lunch is not provided on our day of departure, as the plane leaves at (13) in the afternoon. Now, if there are any questions . . .
