Listening Comprehension

Listen to the text and then do the tasks

Task 1. Put «T» if the statement is true and «F» if it is false

1) Generally speaking, the British are rude.
2) Most British people have their own homes.
3) British people still like hunting pets.
4) The British are closely connected to their tradition.
5) The British are often very open and spontaneous people.
6) British people still love hunting of foxes and hares.

Task 2. Choose the correct answer

1. The British are often viewed as ___.

a) the most talkative and amiable people in the world
b) the most boring people in the world
c) the most absent – minded people in the world

2. They have ___ which is not understood by the foreigners.

a) a specific sense of humour b) a specific style in fashion c) their private life

3. Talking to other people they always discuss _____.

a) their family matters b) the weather or some general questions c) their private life

4. The British always queue when they are _____.

a) waiting for a bus b) shopping c) taking books from a library

5. The clothes the British wear are usually _____.

a) useless b) specific c) unimaginatively formal

6. If you have a British friend, this is _____.

a) a friend for life
b) a hooligan and vandal
c) a reserved person

LIVEWORKSHEETS